ABOUT THE STUDIO

In 2002, Nicole Aravena founded Seven Star School of Performing Arts with the goal of offering quality performing arts education in the Brewster area. The curriculum at the school includes numerous areas of dance and competition. The faculty at the Seven Star School of Performing Arts is a unique team of qualified professionals, many certified by test to teach. Many have worked professionally on Broadway, in dance companies, on television, and throughout the entertainment industry. They are dedicated to offering children the best performing arts education possible.

The Seven Star School of Performing Arts production of The Wizard of Oz is the studio's sixth annual main stage production. Following great successes in High School Musical, Annie, Beauty and the Beast, Aladdin, and The Little Mermaid, the studio is extremely pleased as the extensive program continues to expand and grow.

MEET THE DIRECTOR

Lisa Lombardo graduated in 2010 from Franklin Pierce University where she received a B.A. in Theatre Arts with a concentration in both Directing and Modern Dance. She has spent many months in both Vienna, Austria and Lyon, France studying Theatre and Dance. Lisa has been seen performing in many productions throughout New York, Connecticut, and New Hampshire. Although Lisa loves performing, her passion is in teaching. She has been teaching, acting, and dancing throughout New York and Connecticut for the past five years as well as directing, choreographing, and stage managing many youth productions.
